MORAVIANS, METHODISTS & MARTINDALE HALL

<NEW>

Pastoralists, church going farmers and miners developed most of the Mid North. Many were unique characters, hardworking, devout Christians and an important part of our European heritage. Not all were British. The Cornish and Welsh miners of Kapunda's copper mine were mainly Methodists as were the farmers of Woolshed Flat. The forgotten Moravian Brethren (originally Czech) from Saxony at Bethel and Schorndorf near Tarlee had unique beliefs with communistic religious communities controlled by strict elders. The pastoral era of the Auburn to Mintaro districts was dominated by the British Bowman family. They built several grand mansions in SA from Poltalloch and Campbell Park to the impressive Martindale Hall at Mintaro. We will enjoy an included Devonshire tea and tour of the mansion that was used for the film Picnic at Hanging Rock. Extensive history notes provided. Depart WEA centre sharp at 9 am and return around 6 pm.

BIG QUESTIONS

Many people ponder on the big philosophical questions such as: How can we know what is real? Can we understand human mind? Is our life pre-determined? Is there any meaning in our existence? How should we live in society? How can we know what is right or wrong? What kind of life is good life? etc. In this course we will explore the possible answers, using ideas of great western and eastern thinkers, ancient and modern.

DYING TO KNOW THE TRUTH: DEATH & DYING

Throughout human history, a fascination with death has been ever-present, characterized by obsession with or often fear of the end and myriad questions of what, if any, afterlife may exist for us. Together, we will explore the journey the human body will take during and after the end of life period. We will also review both clinical and biological death, including near-death experience (NDE) and out-of-body experience (OBE), situations in which one leaves their body and life behind temporarily. The information presented in this seminar will be presented from a non-sectarian, medically scientific, humanistic perspective. 'Morbidity curiosity welcome'.
